

Linda M. Voller, CTFA

Trust Officer

Linda Voller is a Trust Officer with Bridgeford Trust Company. She is also the Vice President and Trust Officer at Delta Trust Company, Inc. and has been with Delta Trust Company since its inception in 1992, where she has gained significant trust administration experience as well as very valuable insight into South Dakota banking and trust company requirements.

Ms. Voller administers trusts with full discretionary authority and works with the families and investment managers to adhere to the requirements of trust documents while also meeting the needs of the beneficiaries. Her prior experience includes an accounting position with The South Dakota Bankers Association and also extensive experience in the insurance industry.

Ms. Voller holds an Associate's Degree in Accounting from Bismarck State College, Bismarck, ND. She is a graduate of Cannon Financial Institute's Trust School and holds the Certified Trust and Financial Advisor (CTFA[™]) designation.